Friedrich A. Hayek Fellowships

2022 GENERAL MEETING OF THE MONT PELERIN SOCIETY
(Oslo, Norway – October 4 to 8, 2022)

“An international authority which effectively limits the powers of the state over the individual will be one of the best safeguards of peace. The international Rule of Law must become a safeguard as much against the tyranny of the state over the individual as against the tyranny of the new super-state over the national communities. Neither an omnipotent super-state, nor a loose association of ‘free nations’, but a community of nations of free men must be our goal.”

- Hayek, Friedrich (1944, 1976) The Road To Serfdom. Routledge & Kegan Paul. p. 175.

“Since it has been argued so far that an essentially liberal economic regime is a necessary condition for the success of any interstate federation, it may be added, in conclusion, that the converse is no less true: the abrogation of national sovereignties and the creation of an effective international order of law is a necessary complement and the logical consummation of the liberal program.”

- Hayek, Friedrich (1939) The Economic Conditions of Interstate Federalism, reprinted in Individualism and Economic Order (1949, 1976). Routledge & Kegan Paul. p. 269.

Essay Contest

- What type of international order is most conducive to the preservation of liberalism?
- What is the appropriate role for the subsidiarity principle and/or secession?
- What cultural domestic underpinnings are necessary for successful international orders?
- How does trade policy relate to and/or influence the larger institutional international order?

Essays should address one or more of these quotes from Hayek and/or suggested questions. More information on the conference theme can be found at: <http://www.mpsoslo.org>. Essays structured as a professional scholarly journal article are especially encouraged.
